

Kitty Claws are Coming Around

Oh, you better watch out.
You better not shout.
You better not doubt I'm telling you why.
Kitty claws are coming around.

They know when you are sleeping.
They know when you're awake.
They know when you have toes exposed,
So, cover up for goodness' sake!

Oh, you better watch out.
You better not shout.
You better not doubt I'm telling you why.
Kitty claws are coming around.

They dig into your pinkies.
They latch onto your big toe.
They see your every movement there,
As they gladly bat your nose!

Oh, you better watch out.
You better not shout.
You better not doubt I'm telling you why.
Kitty claws are coming around.
